Volunteer Spotlight

...Reneé Jaffé

By Brittany Unthank ■ Community Standards Coordinator

South Riding is lucky to have many long-term volunteers. In this month's magazine we would like to spotlight Reneé Jaffé, who currently serves on the Community Standards Committee.

Reneé, originally from New York, spent 30 years living in North Potomac Maryland before arriving in South Riding. She has lived in the same home within the SR community for 6 years with her husband, but will soon be moving this fall to be closer to her daughter in the Northern Neck area.

Reneé is a stay-at-home mom to two daughters. She enjoys outdoor activities such as gardening and hiking in her free time.

When asked what she likes most about living in South Riding, Reneé's response is she loves the sense of community as well as the abundance of event and amenities available.

We would like to thank Reneé for her service and dedication to the community! The committees and task forces are the heart of the South Riding community, if you would also like to serve your community, volunteering is a great way to do so! If you are interested in volunteering, our SR Staff is available to answer additional questions or assist you in finding your role within the volunteer pool. In-person or phone appointments can be scheduled with designated Staff by sending an email to townhall@southriding.net.
